

20th September 2010

Dear Parents and Children,

I am writing to give you further information regarding our forthcoming book week, mentioned in our recent newsletter. During the week beginning Monday 4th October, we have arranged a week of book based activities which we hope everyone will enjoy.

On Monday 4th October, we are inviting the children to come to school dressed as their favourite book character.

On Tuesday we will be investigating poetry within the classroom.

Wednesday will be bedtime story day and we are inviting children to come to school dressed in their pyjamas. Please ensure they still have sensible footwear and are dressed warmly enough with coats for playtimes.

On Thursday, the library will be officially opening to children and we will also be holding a free book swap in our new community room between 2.30pm and 4pm. Please bring unwanted books of reasonable quality to swap. At the end of the school day you are welcome to bring your child with you to participate in the swap. There will be separate tables for adult and children's books.

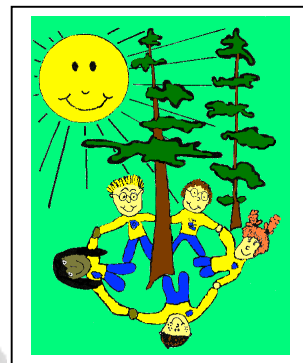

Finally, on Friday we will be looking at books and stories from around the world as part of our Far Away Friday assembly. If you have stories or books from your own culture that you would like to share, please speak to your child's class teacher or Mrs Chambers.

During the week, we will also be holding a competition for the best book review written by children. There will be a book token prize for the best review in each class. Closing date for this competition is Monday 11th October and judging will take place on Thursday 14th October. Invitations will be sent for celebration assembly on Thursday 21st October where prizes will be awarded. Book reviews can be written on our Wizkids learning platform or on a hard copy, a proforma of which is available from the class teacher.

Thank you for supporting Children's Book Week 2010.

Yours sincerely

Mrs Woodrow, School Librarian
